

PRESS RELEASE
14.09.2026

‘Pravartan Sandesh’ conferred Rajbhasha Kirti Puraskar: National recognition for ED’s achievement in Official Language implementation

The Hindi Journal ‘Pravartan Sandesh’, published by the Directorate of Enforcement (ED), has been conferred the Rajbhasha Kirti Puraskar 2025-26 (Second Prize under Region ‘A’) by the Department of Official Language, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India. The Puraskar was presented by the Hon’ble Union Ministers of State for Home Affairs, Shri Bandi Sanjay Kumar and Shri Nityanand Rai on 14.09.2026 on the occasion of the Hindi Diwas-2026 and the Sixth All India Official Language Conference, held at Mumbai. The event was organised under the chairmanship of Hon’ble Union Minister of Home Affairs and Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah.

‘Pravartan Sandesh’ is the Hindi in-house Journal of the Directorate of Enforcement. Through the Hindi journal, an endeavour is made to present complex legal, financial and investigative subjects pertaining to the Directorate’s domain, along with activities relating to the Official Language Hindi, in a simple, accessible and effective manner. The journal seeks not only to present the various dimensions of the Directorate’s work comprehensively in Hindi, but also to promote the progressive use of Hindi as the Official Language in official work.

During the year 2025-26, Issue 9 of ‘Pravartan Sandesh’ was centered on the theme ‘ED’s Campaign against Terror Financing’. The issue prominently showcased the Directorate’s actions against terror financing, besides covering various dimensions of financial crime and matters concerning national and economic security. It also provided a wider perspective on ED’s counter-terror-financing interventions and the financial networks associated with such activities.

Continuing this thematic approach, Issue 10 was centered on ‘From Public Interest to National Interest: ED’s Victim-Centric Actions and Relief’. The issue highlighted key areas including law enforcement, transparency, extended justice and restitution, a secure economy and Viksit Bharat, as well as international cooperation and coordination. In particular, it brought to the fore ED’s victim-centric approach, encompassing the tracing and attachment of Proceeds of Crime and facilitating the eventual restoration of properties to victims.

Through the journal, the Directorate has consistently endeavoured to communicate its core investigative and enforcement functions in clear and comprehensible Hindi, while making the effective use of the Official Language an integral part of its institutional work culture. Issue 10, in particular, highlighted the Directorate’s efforts towards safeguarding the country’s financial integrity and advancing a victim-centric approach to enforcement in an accessible form. Earlier, the Directorate of Enforcement had secured the 3rd Prize in the All India Hindi Short Film Making Competition on AI, organised by the Department of Official Language, Ministry of Home Affairs, in 2024, further reflecting the Directorate’s innovative efforts and encouragement towards the promotion and effective use of Official Language Hindi.

The conferment of the Rajbhasha Kirti Puraskar is a significant national recognition of the Directorate of Enforcement’s commitment to the effective implementation of the Official Language Hindi.

प्रवर्तन संदेश, अंक-9 \(हिंदी पत्रिका\)

प्रवर्तन संदेश, अंक-10 \(हिंदी पत्रिका\)

